Absolutely, we will provide a list of the documents that were redacted along with the pages numbers. All redacted documents will contain “_R.pdf” at the end of the file name so the redacted version can be distinguished from the original. Only the redacted version will be provided on the CD containing the updated collection.

Lastly, a few of the file names had to be shortened since they were too long and were causing issues with our network (i.e., the PDF could not be opened). A list of the documents with revised names will be provided as well.

Thank you,

Lindsay – Also, can you identify the redacted pages, so that I can compare with the pages where I saw SS#s. Just want to run a little QA/QC on the concordance search.

Thanks

Subject: TO-035 Upper Animas

Hi Mike, Richard,

We have finished the preliminary review of the Sunnyside document collection for social security numbers (re: TO-035 Upper Animas). We identified seven documents containing SSNs and the information has been redacted. The redacted text currently is marked with "FX-6 Personal Privacy" to correspond with the FOIA exemptions. If you would like the redactions to read with alternate text, we can easily change this. Please let me know your preference. We will provide the updated collection to you by the end of the week.

Thank you,
